Positive Attitude and Mentorship

Having a positive attitude during these challenging times may not be easy. However, you have the opportunity to build on that positive attitude with your team through mentoring — both can benefit your practice and your legacy.

I was recently reminded that heroes are “ordinary people showing up and doing something extraordinary.” While your Dental Management consultant will help you learn more about the financial and employee aspects of your business, you can take steps to improve your leadership skills and gain a personal sense of satisfaction from being a mentor.

See my latest DentistryIQ article here for the full story and ways to improve your practice and start your path to mentorship.

Where is Your Money Going?

With my personalized management and bookkeeping services, you can effectively track your spending, manage your overhead, and gain important financial insights to set goals — all in a timely manner.

For detailed spend calculations and budget forecasting, I recommend the trusted and affordable QuickBooks® program — and can offer a discount on this product. I can guide you through your choice of online or desktop versions, or I can offer you a full-service option, no program needed. Also, I can train your selected team member in QuickBooks and work with your accountant as needed.

File Your PPP Forgiveness

Many dentists were able to take advantage of a PPP (Paycheck Protection Program) Loan this year. As part of this program, you can file for forgiveness of all or part of the loan by processing the necessary forms. Of course, there is criteria that must be met such as percentages of payroll to employees, total salaries paid, and figuring out other expenses that can be deducted.

Once you have your totals, here are the required documents.

Need help? I can guide you through your expenditures and the completion of “forgiveness” documents. If you still have PPP monies left, I can help create a plan for the rest of your spending as well as any future PPP program benefits. Reach me at (847) 650-4531, or email Jeanne@giodentalconsulting.com.
